1. Introduction

In the development process, colleges and universities have always been carrying the important task of cultivating people with morality. With the continuous development of the college and university education and the continuous advancement of college and university reform, the task of cultivating people with morality shouldered by colleges and universities gets new requirements and has more important significance. The development of the Party construction guarantee project provides a reliable guarantee for colleges and universities to complete the fundamental task of educating people with morality.

2. The Necessity of Implementing the Party Construction Guarantee Project in Colleges and Universities to Promote the Realization of the Basic Task of Cultivating People with Morality

The idea of cultivating people with morality plays an important role in the development of colleges and universities. In the 18th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, this idea has been elevated to the height of education's fundamental task, from which we can get the importance of the idea of cultivating people with morality in campus construction and education reform. With the continuous acceleration of social development speed and pace, people's thinking and behavior patterns show the characteristics of diversification, especially after the participation of information technology, colleges and universities are facing important new situation challenge in their development. In recent years, colleges and universities have been constantly exploring how to accomplish the fundamental task of cultivating people with morality. The development of Party construction and the exploration of colleges and universities have coincided, guiding the education development of colleges and universities, especially the implementation of Party construction guarantee project is the reliable guarantee for colleges and universities to realize cultivating people with morality, which can be found in the Party Constitution.

The Party Constitution clearly defines the role of our Party and its members and we can know the communist Party member's own excellent quality and the role played. In the Party construction guarantee project, the Party members often play the leading role. Colleges and universities should pay attention to the cultivation of Party members while carrying out Party construction related work, which will play a guiding role in the formation of the atmosphere of cultivating people with morality. With the in-depth development of theme education in the colleges and universities, Party members in colleges and universities seek their ‘original hear’ in education, and think on their own problems, which will help them meet the requirements of the Party constitution, find their deficiencies in the series of links of theme education, and provide guarantee for colleges and universities to achieve the goal of cultivating people with morality.

Party construction guarantee project is a systematic project, which covers the important content of Party construction. From the perspective of cultivating people with morality in colleges and universities, the development of Party construction work to enhance the Party members’ Party spirit and improve their work ability, and finally drive the colleges and universities to form a good atmosphere of cultivating people with morality. Therefore, this paper mainly discusses the Party construction guarantee project from the perspective of cultivating Party members and giving full play to their role. When colleges and universities start the work of developing Party members, they should study the specific requirements in the Party Constitution carefully and understand the essence of the specific requirements, after that, educate the Party members by means of various significant training, so that the Party members could guide other students in school to practice the correct ‘Three Contemplations’ in the process of strengthening the Party spirit, so as to promote the realization of the goal of cultivating people with morality. In addition, by cultivating Party members and giving full play to their roles, Party members can also become the effective carrier to get breakthrough in the Party construction work of colleges and universities, both of which jointly promote the high-quality completion of the work that cultivating people with morality.

3. Developing and Training Qualified Party Members Lay a Solid Foundation for the Party Construction Guarantee engineer’s Task Completion of Cultivating People with Morality.

To give full play to the role of Party members, the improvement of their comprehensive quality is the basis and prerequisite. After joining the Party organization, student Party members should take the improvement of self-cultivation, especially the Party spirit cultivation, as one necessary quality requirement, so as to lay a foundation for the development of the Party construction guarantee project and the cultivation of people with morality in colleges and universities.

3.1 Lay Emphasis on the Development of Student Party Members

Student Party members are generally excellent students in school. Party organizations in colleges and universities usually train a group of outstanding students every year and lead them into the Party organization. At present, the proportion of student Party members is very high, it is necessary to have one set of strict development standards, otherwise some students whose comprehensive ability is not good enough may also be included into the Party organization, which will not only affect the image of the Party, but also be not conducive to the realization of the school's goal of cultivating people with morality. At present, there are special working rules for developing party members and the Party organizations in colleges and universities should take the working rules as the direction and have a comprehensive understanding of the overall situation of students, especially their political literacy. After a comprehensive understanding of the students' comprehensive situation and then a final determination of their eligibility for party membership is determined, the Party organization should earnestly fulfill the basic procedures of party membership and strictly implement the specific requirements, so as to recruit students into party organizations in accordance with required procedures.

3.2 Colleges and Universities Should Pay Attention to the Education Function on the Administrating of Student Party Members Work.

After guiding students into Party organizations, colleges and universities should strengthen the education of student Party members and take effective measures to administrate them. The two important steps of education and management are the requirements of the Party Constitution for Party members, which are unified with the goal of cultivating people with morality in colleges and universities. From the perspective of education, colleges and universities should train student Party... members, and ensure that practical results can be received during the training, furthermore, during the training process, the phenomenon is not allowed that the student Party members have little gain after long-time learning. The key point is to learn the essence of theory, put what you have learned into your mind and heart, and improve your political accomplishment and theoretical accomplishment in theory-learning process.

3.3 Emphatic Training in Improving Student Party members’ Comprehensive Ability

The key to becoming a qualified Party member is that the student Party member has a good political quality and theoretical cultivation. In addition, student Party members should constantly improve their comprehensive quality, no matter in professional learning or moral shaping, etc., they should set a good example among students, consistent with the school's goal of cultivating people with morality. The comprehensive quality of student Party members is reflected in many aspects of study and life, specifically, the first is to strengthen the study of professional knowledge. Student Party members usually take part in Party construction activities organized by the school, and they should combine party construction activities with professional knowledge learning to realize the joint promotion of both. The second is to strengthen the shaping of moral character. The requirement for ‘morality’ in the goal of cultivating people with morality in colleges and universities is high. Student Party members exercise their moral conduct in accordance with the requirements of the core socialist values. They should have both good moral character and noble character. The third is to strengthen their physical and mental health.

3.4 Adopting the Exit Mechanism to Examine Student Party Members

Student Party members, after entering the Party organization, cannot be cocky. However, the performance of some student Party members in some colleges and universities does not accord with the party constitution. Therefore, in order to constantly regulate the behavior of student Party members and guarantee them always being advanced and loyal, the Party organization of colleges and universities should strengthen the assessment on student Party members besides, for the Party members who have bad performance after joining the Party, the exit mechanism should be adopted according to the relevant procedures. The implementation of the exit mechanism can make the team of student Party members get further purification to ensure that student Party members consciously develop a good sense of Party spirit in their study and life.

4. Give full play to the guiding role of student Party members, and create a good atmosphere for the Party construction guarantee project to promote the task completion of cultivating people with morality

The Party spirit cultivation improvement of student Party members will play a guiding and leading role among students, which is also an important measure to extend the Party construction guarantee project among students. The student Party members need to play their exemplary role so that to make the Party construction guarantee project play a greater role among the students. We can start from the following aspects:

4.1 Create a Platform to Display the Exemplary Role of Student Party Members

Student Party members should play a role in the study and life among ordinary students and at ordinary times to influence and infect other students with their good action. There are many ways to create a platform to display their exemplary role in colleges and universities, for example, from the following aspects:

1) Create a good dormitory culture for student Party members. In college and university campus, the construction of dormitory culture is a mirror to show students' image. The establishment of a good dormitory culture can help students grow up healthily; On the contrary, students are easy to be eroded by bad behaviors. Therefore, student Party members should take the lead in building exemplary student dormitories and create positive dormitory culture, such as non-smoking and non-drinking, atmosphere of unity and forging ahead, etc., furthermore radiate this good dormitory culture to students to enrich and standardize campus culture of colleges and universities.

2). Volunteer service to help students. The guiding role of student Party members should be reflected in the care and help of ordinary students. When some students meet some difficulties in study or life, the student Party members should pay close attention to these students, organize a volunteer team to help solving their difficulties, and pass the love to more people to let more students join the volunteer team.

3). Establish the learning atmosphere. Learning is the main mission of college and university students, student Party members should play a leading role in learning to create a learning atmosphere conducive to study under the encouragement and support of teachers.

4.2 To Improve and Innovate the Working Carrier of Cultivating People with Morality through the Party Construction Work

The development of the Party construction will promote the effective operation of the Party construction guarantee project and the role of student Party members in the Party construction work of colleges and universities is great. By carrying out the Party construction work earnestly, the guiding role of student Party members can be brought into full play effectively, which provide a good work carrier for the task of cultivating people with morality in colleges and universities.

5. Conclusion

Colleges and universities should be deeply aware of the important role of the Party construction guarantee project in realizing the task of cultivating people with morality and take practical measures to promote the effective development of all kinds of work. In the development process of Party construction work, combining innovative ideas with the practical work of the unit to fully excavate the characteristics of the Party construction guarantee project in each college or university, so that the work can constantly present a new look.
