Abstract: There is a symbiotic relationship between the construction of campus culture and the incorruptible education of college students. The learning and living conditions of college students are directly related to the construction of campus culture. The construction of campus culture provides a good environment for the healthy growth of college students, and provides a carrier for developing honest education for college students.

1. Introduction

The construction of campus culture is a comprehensive reflection of the idea of running a school, college spirit and management level, having a subtle effect on College Students' honesty concept, value orientation, and honest behavior, bearing the educational function of incorruptible culture.

2. The mechanism of the construction of campus culture to the incorruptible education of College Students

2.1 The function of Integrated condensation

To carry out a comprehensive student honesty education, honesty education to cultivate college students' healthy personality, to promote all-round development plays an important role, but there are also problems of honesty education effect, the form and purpose is unknown, the hierarchical structure of multiple, on balance the education is the lack of coordination and consistency, In order to solve this problem, it is necessary for the national education department to use administrative power to intervene and integrate. It needs the integration function of campus culture, and practically improves the effect of honest education for college students.

2.2 The function of value oriented

The culture of honest government is a combination of cultural elements such as the concept of honest government, the theory of honest government, the system of honest government and the behavior of honest government.[1]As the mainstream culture of socialism with Chinese characteristics in the new era, the integrity culture is in full conformity with the fair and honest contents contained in the core values of socialism and plays a leading role in pursuing the values of members of the entire nation. At present, the society is in the period when the transition has not been completed yet. All kinds of stakeholders will inevitably lead to the diversity of values, which deeply influences the ideological and value pursuit process of college students. Campus culture is an important part of socialist advanced culture and can help Students to clarify the value of pursuit, establish the correct values, the outlook on life, the World view.

2.3 The function of Inheriting and continuing

The clean campus culture is the result of the clean education of college students. It is the distillation of college students' clean education experience. Because of the inheritance of culture, the campus clean culture also has the function of inheritance and continuation, which can integrate the achievements and experience of clean education of college students in the campus Culture, to lead the clean and honest education on campus to play a leading role in providing a good campus atmosphere

3. The principle of examining the integrity education of college students from a cultural perspective

3.1 Adhere to the principle of gradual step by step

As an important part of the ideological and political education of college students, college students' honest and Incorruptible education must follow the law of Ideological and political education of college students. A comprehensive investigation of the characteristics of the healthy growth and development of college students, adhering to the principle of gradual progress, teaching students in accordance with their aptitude, can achieve good results. First, it is necessary to grasp the growth stage of college students, and to run through the integrity of the college students in the whole college career, Build a clean education system from education to graduation. The second is to know the honest cultural construction of the long-term, look from the honest cultural form, college campus honest cultural construction is a process of accumulate over a long period, cannot be achieved overnight, from the point of use honest cultural normative, honest culture as the campus of the genetic, which regulates the all kinds of clean thinking and behavior of college students, has the characteristics of long-term, persistent.

3.2 Adhere to the principle of psychological internalization

It is necessary to adhere to the principle of psychological internalization to examine the integrity education of college students from a cultural perspective. The formation of human morality has to go through three processes: compliance, identification and internalization. The honest education of college students is to exert their influence on college students through the external environmental forces, and urge them to transform the incorruptible influence into the internal moral norms and behavior norms. Song Junjie, a psychologist, pointed out that "from the outside world, we should exert a purposeful influence on college students and promote their contradictory transformation of their subjective factors so as to achieve internalization of honesty."<sup>[2]</sup> To achieve this goal, the urgent need for college students to grow is to provide an opportunity for internalization of honest and Incorruptible thought, which can inspire college students to accept honest thoughts from psychological perspective, and promote honest thinking into their own values and ideological and moral accomplishment.

3.3 Adhere to the principle of political guidance

From the cultural perspective, it is necessary to adhere to the correct political direction, to sing the main melody of the clean government and to transmit the positive energy of honest and clean government. One is to firmly grasp the party leadership for the campus of the propaganda culture, college students honesty education as an important content of school teaching work, to actively promote the policy and situation of the party and the state to punish corruption in fighting, let students realize the anti-corruption situation, firm the confidence of the anti-corruption work, cultivate correct values of integrity.

3.4 Adhere to the principle of sublation

Examining the incorruptible education of college students from a cultural perspective. From the internal mechanism, we should promote the integrity of campus incorruptible culture through the incorruptible education of college students, so as to enrich the content of honest culture in the campus culture and provide a good external environment for the all-round development of college students. The whole process is also a process of changing and renewing the idea of education and the mode of education. It is a process of incorruptible education from single to multiple. and from dominance to dominance and to recessive. This process has enriched and developed the theory of incorruptible education for college students.

4. A analysis of the relationship between campus culture construction and college students' integrity education

4.1 Relevance in content

Campus culture is the sum of all the subject together to create the spirit reflect the school's formation, is leading the development of the school spirit, it covers the campus material, spirit, behavior and system culture, clean culture is an important part of campus culture, The campus integrity culture is derived from Chinese traditional culture and is adapted to the core values of Chinese socialism. Among them, The integrity concept, the just concept and the Frugality idea are the concrete manifestations of clean culture on campus. The process of honest education for college students is the process of transforming the knowledge of integrity into the probity of college students, helping them to form the correct values of integrity. Therefore, the construction of campus culture is related to the content of College Students' integrity education.

4.2 The relevance of the goal of educating people

The construction of campus culture and college students' integrity education are highly consistent with their goals. The educational function of the campus is to internalize the university spirit and university thoughts into the students' psychology and mind. encourage students to form the correct "three outlooks", becoming a person benefits to the country, the people, and the society. The incorruptible education of college students also plays an important role in the process of educating people. College students are quasi laborers of the state, and they are the future builders of the motherland. The incorruptible education of college students can cultivate the quality of honesty .Promote the healthy growth of college students, in a word. The construction of campus culture and college students' integrity education are consistent in the goal of educating people.
