The new historical experience shows that the inheritance and development of Marxism-Leninism, Mao Zedong Thought, Deng Xiaoping Theory, the important thinking of the "Three Represents" and the scientific development concept of Xi Jinping's new era of socialism reflect the principle of combining theory with practice. From revolution, construction to reform, from the new-democratic revolution to the socialist revolution, the Communist Party of China has always adhered to the combination of Marxist principles and Chinese practice, and explored a path suitable for China's development, that is, the road of socialism with Chinese characteristics. This is also the success of our party. Key factor. In his many speeches, General Secretary Xi Jinping talked about seeking truth from facts, Marx and Engels did not directly use the term "seeking truth from facts", but the dialectical materialism and historical materialism they created highlighted the fact that seeking truth from facts. The deepening of the understanding of the three major laws helps to have a deeper understanding of the nature of the Communist Party and is a major theoretical innovation of Chinese Marxism.

Studying and Judging Major Social Contradictions.
